YEAR 5 VICTORIANS WORKSHOP – THURSDAY 23RD OCTOBER

Dear Parent/Carer,

As part of our commitment to providing exciting learning experiences for our pupils we have invited international storyteller and children's author Clive Pig into Hugh Sexey School. He will be coming in on Thursday 23rd October to deliver a storytelling workshop to year 5 about the Victorian era. The session will aim to build on topics relating to the Victorians study that pupils will be covering in their Humanities lessons after half term, specifically looking at the lived experience of children at the time.

In order to provide such valuable enrichment experiences for the pupils we do rely on contributions from parents; without these we would not be able to fund such exciting opportunities. Please note if the contributions do not cover the costs of the session, then the visit will have to be cancelled.

The cost for the Clive Pig workshop is £3.00. Payment should be made via MCAS (My Child at School); the deadline for payment is Tuesday 21st October.

The Charging and Remissions Policy is available on the school website. However, if any parent is entitled to pupil premium for their child, the school may have funding to assist with the cost of this activity – please contact the Finance Office for details.

Pupils must also check and make arrangements for any missed music tuition.

Thank you for your support of the curriculum enhancement opportunities provided by the Humanities department. If you have any queries regarding this visit, please contact the school.

Kind regards,

Elizabeth Maden
